Connectiont All Right.

New Haven, IS.—Senator Eaton was made permanent chairman of the democratic state convention. He characterized the electoral commission as the groatest political crime of modern time, and appealed to the convention to rebuke it.

The expression was vociferously applauded. He congratulated himself that there was but one feeling in reference to it. As he lived he believed Connecticut would give Hancock and English 5,000 majority. Government shall be taken out of the hands of these who had finandilently retained it. There would be a saving of at least $50,000,000 a year. It was the power of all that had brought prosperity. John Sherman was not even a guide-post to refunding government bonds at 4 per cert. He could do nothing except as ordered by the democratic Congress.

James E. England of New Haven, was nominated for governor and telegraphed his acceptance. Charles M. Pond, of Hartford, was nominated for lieutenant governor, S. S. Blake; secretary of state; Merrick A. Merry, treasurer and Charles E. Fagan, comptroller.

The Cattfornia Enights' Uniform.

Chicago, 18.—The Times, expressing what was frequently remarked yesterday, says of the rich and elesant uniforms worn by the sir knights of the California commandery: No one was particularly noticeable in the ranks. The hat or chapten is black, low crowned and with a broad rim turned up in front, on which is the appropriate cross, set in two large silver resetts, from which spring black and white plumes; the scarf or ba decick, bearing regulation emblems, is of black velvet, very wide, and trimmed with buillion friege. The sword is also regulation and the belt black. The peculiar and striking feaand trimmed with ballion friege. The sword is also regulation and the helt black. The peculiar and striking feature of the uniform is a short cape of the finest black velves. Have and quitted with white silk. This is worn over the left shoulder like a chasseaur military jackst. On the cape, at the point of the shoulder, there is a large famplar cross of white silk, relieved with silver, while the border of the cape is trimmed with two rows of elaborate silver bullion lace.

New York, 18.—Commercial Bulletia:
There is need of further light upon the object of the visit of the Chinese embassy to Washington. Both Evarts and Marsh have stated unequivocally that the imperial government has repealed and account these repealed and accountive. Precisely what that decree may be neither of these gentlemen have stated, nor have we been able to ascertain from merchants familiar with the China trade. Mere light is needed to show, first, whether the decree prohibiting the china trade. Mere light is needed to show, first, whether the decree prohibiting the china trade with foreign trade has erised, and, second, whether that decree has been repealed. Assuming the affirmative of these questions, important changes in our treaty or the prohibitors with China will have to be made before this new liberty can be turned to account in the trade with the United States, for the embargees and trade with non-treaty ports of China, and Pat Powers, sailor, were characteristic to account in the trade with the United States, for the embargees and trade with non-treaty ports of China, for the law as it now stands, are positively prohibitory.
